

Case 2018-04
RE GLEN MAPES, et al.
v.
METROPOLITAN NEW YORK PRESBYTERY

DECISION ON COMPLAINT

February 7, 2019

This Complaint is not judicially in order, having been rendered moot. The remedy sought by the Complaint was a congregational meeting to allow a vote on leaving the PCA. While the requested meeting was denied by the temporary session of the church in November 2017, both parties agreed at the Panel Hearing that Metropolitan New York Presbytery voted in October 2018 to dismiss the Congregation pending their consent (BCO 13-9(f)), which consent was given at a called congregational meeting in December 2018.

(20 concurring, 3 dissenting, 1 disqualified)

RE Terrell disqualified himself as he is a member of a church in the Presbytery which is a party to the case. OMSJC 2.10(d)(3)(iii).

Case 2018-05
TE DAVID MCKAY VS.
CENTRAL INDIANA PRESBYTERY

DECISION ON COMPLAINT

February 7, 2019

The case is administratively out of order because the e-mail transmitted to the clerk of the lower court did not meet the requirement of BCO 43-3, in that the correspondence sent by complainant to the lower court was insufficient to constitute proper notice.

APPENDIX T
